- b) Shareholders that have stated their intention to participate in the meeting, by way of written document addressed to the Chairman of the General Meeting and to the financial intermediary with which they have opened the relevant individual securities account, until 11:59 pm (UK time) of April 16 2012. In order to do so, shareholders may use the forms available on Galp Energia's website (<http://ag24abril2012.galpenenergia.com>) or request them by the following email address ag24abril2012@galpenenergia.com;
- c) The financial intermediary who, has been informed of the shareholder's intention to participate in the General Meeting, under the terms of sub-paragraph b) above, has sent to the Chairman of the General Meeting, until 11.59 pm (UK time) of the Record Date, the information on the number of shares registered on behalf of its client as of 00:00 am (UK time) of the Record Date. In order do to so, the e-mail address ag24abril2012@galpenenergia.com may be used.
- d) The exercising of these rights shall not be affected by the transfer of shares at any time after 00:00 am (UK time) of the Record Date, nor shall it be dependent on their blocking ("bloqueio") between such Record Date and the date of the General Meeting. Nevertheless, shareholders who having stated their intention to participate in the General Meeting, subsequently transfer title to their shares within the period from 00:00 am (UK time) of the Record Date until the closing of the General Meeting, shall immediately communicate such fact to the Chairman of the General Meeting and to the Portuguese Securities Commission. The e-mail address ag24abril2012@galpenenergia.com may be used for the purposes of the communication to be sent to the Chairman of the General Meeting.

Any shareholder who, as a professional, holds shares in his/her/its own name but on behalf of his/her/its clients, may vote in different directions with its shares, provided that, apart from the documents mentioned in sub-paragraphs b) and c) above, it submits to the Chairman of the General Meeting board, until 11:59 pm (UK time) of the Record Date, by using sufficient and proportionate means of proof, the (i) identification of each client and the number of shares entitled to vote on such client's account and (ii) the voting instructions for each item on the agenda given by each client.

Each share shall entitle to one vote.

II. Right to Information at the General Meeting

Any shareholder may, during the course of the General Meeting, request true, detailed and clear information so as to enable him/her/it to form a grounded opinion on the item on the agenda.

The information requested will be provided by the Board of Directors and may only be refused if its disclosure may cause serious damages to the Company or to other company related thereto, or breach of a secrecy duty imposed by law.

III. Right to Insert Items on the Agenda

Under article 23-A of the Securities code, shareholders holding at least 2% of share capital may request the inclusion of new items to the notice of call of the general meeting of April 24 2012. This request shall be accompanied by a proposal of resolution for each item whose inclusion is requested. The items and proposals of resolution shall be disclosed to shareholders by the same means used to disclose this notice of call no later than 00:00 (UK time) of the Record Date.

IV. Right to Submit Resolution Proposals

Shareholders holding at least 2% of share capital may request the inclusion of proposals of resolution regarding items in the agenda of this notice of call or items that will be added to the agenda. This request shall be evidenced by written means in the five days following the publication of this notice of call, along with the information that shall accompany the proposal of resolution. These proposals of resolution and information shall be disclosed, whenever possible, to shareholders by the same means used to disclose this notice of call until 10 days prior to the general meeting.

If requests above are not followed, shareholders may seek a court decision regarding the call of a new general meeting to resolve on those items, under article 378, paragraph 4, of the Companies Code.

V. Representation at the General Meeting

Corporate shareholders can be represented at shareholder meetings by any person, and can communicate the appointment by any written means.

Private shareholders can only be represented by a member of the board of directors, by their spouse, by their relatives in direct line, or by other shareholders, and can communicate the appointment by any written means.

Except for the State, shareholders intending to be represented should submit the instruments of representation and, in the corporate shareholders case, should communicate who will represent them, at least five days prior to the General Meeting being held, and according to the law.

The representation mentioned in the previous paragraphs should be reported through letter addressed to the chairman of the general meeting, to be received at the Company's head office by no later than April 19 2012, save for the State. To that effect, shareholders may download the "Representation Letter", available at the website <http://ag24abril2012.galpenergia.com>, to be submitted to the chairman of the general meeting, to the effect, can be used the following e-mail address ag24abril2012@galpenergia.com.

VI. Vote by Post

Under the terms of Article 22 of the Portuguese Securities Code, Shareholders may exercise their right to vote by post. The shareholder should send to the chairman of the general meeting, at the Company's head office, a notice specifying the address where the ballot papers should be mailed, until April 16, 2012.

Alternatively, shareholders may download the ballot papers at the website <http://ag24abril2012.galpenergia.com>. In such a case, sending the above-mentioned notice will not be necessary.

Shareholders with voting rights may exercise them by post, on each of the items on the agenda, through ballot paper, with a signature identical to that of the identity card, addressed to the chairman of the general meeting, and mailed to the Company's head office, by registered courier with acknowledgment of receipt, by April 23, 2012. The ballot paper, whose sample can be downloaded at the website <http://ag24abril2012.galpenergia.com>, must be complemented by a readable photocopy of the shareholder's identity card, or, in case of a corporate shareholder, it should be signed by his legal representative, with a signature recognising him/her as such. Deliverance of this ballot paper does not exempt the shareholder from sending the declaration issued by the financial intermediary responsible for the registry of shares in a securities account, until the end of the day of April 17 2012.

In order to be considered valid, an explanation of vote must plain and unequivocally:

1. Identify the item or items on the agenda it refers to;
2. Specify the particular proposal it addresses;
3. Set whether the vote on each of the proposals is for or against it, clear and unconditionally.

Postal votes shall be considered negative vis-à-vis the proposals of deliberation put forward after the date those votes were issued.

The board of the general meeting will carry out the scrutiny of postal votes, by adding them up to the votes cast during the meeting.

The presence at the meeting of a shareholder who voted by post shall be assumed as a revocation of his/her vote.

According with the legal notice periods, information will be available at the Company's head office, and at the website <http://ag24abril2012.galpennergia.com>, under article 289 of the Companies Code and article 21-C of the Portuguese Securities Code.

Likewise, this information (including ballot papers) can be requested by writing to the Company's head office or to the email address ag24abril2012@galpennergia.com.

Additionally, on the disclose date of the notice of meeting of the General Meeting, the documents will also be available at the Securities Market Regulator website at www.cmvm.pt.

1. Notice of shareholders' meetings may be given to the shareholders through its publication in the legal terms or, since all the shares representing the Company's share capital are nominative, this notice may be sent by registered letter or, to any shareholders that express their prior consent, by electronic mail with a request for a receipt upon having been read, sent at least, 21 days before the date of the shareholders' meeting.
2. The provisions of number 4 of article 386 of the Companies Code are not applicable to the meetings of the corporate bodies, whether these are held on the first or second date or convocation.
3. Except in cases in which the law or these Articles of Association require qualified majorities, the deliberations of the general meeting, including those allowed for in number 2 of article 386 of the Companies Code, shall be adopted by a simple majority of votes cast.
4. The resolutions of the general meeting concerning the following matters are only considered approved if accepted by a qualified majority of two thirds of the votes cast:
 - a) deliberations on management matters of the Company submitted to it by the board of directors;
 - b) amendment of the Articles of Association, including capital increases, and also the limitation or suppression of the preference rights of the shareholders;

- c) split, merger, transformation or winding up of the Company.
5. Abstentions are not counted as votes cast.

Article 13.

Meetings

Without prejudice to meetings mandatory under the law, the shareholders' meeting shall meet whenever requested to the chairman of the shareholders' meeting by any other corporate body or shareholders, in the terms provided for in the law.

CHAPTER V

Board of directors and Executive committee

Article 14.

Composition

1. The board of directors shall be composed of between nineteen and twenty three directors.
2. The following procedure shall be observed in the election of the board of directors:
 - a) Shareholders who, by themselves or grouped with others for the purpose, own a holding of a minimum of 10% and maximum of 20% in the share capital with voting rights, may present proposals for the election of one of the directors to be elected;
 - b) Numbers 2 to 5 and number 10 of article 392 of the Companies Code in the wording currently in force will be applicable to the election of the director within the terms of the previous line;
 - c) Shareholders who, individually or grouped for the purpose, together hold less than 10% or more than 20% of the share capital with voting rights of the company will not take part in the isolated election referred to in the previous lines;
 - d) In the absence of the presentation of any list within the terms of the previous lines, or after the procedure under these lines has been concluded, the proceedings will move on to the election of the other directors, including the Chairman of the Board of Directors, although shareholders who have voted in favour of the proposal for the election of a director under lines a) to c) above that has prevailed may not participate in this election;

- e) The other directors, including the chairman of the board of directors, will be elected upon the voting of the lists that are presented for the purpose, with the proposal that obtains the most aye votes being deemed to be approved;
 - f) If the approved proposal includes the maximum number of directors admitted under number 1, and a director has been elected under lines a) to c) above, the director so elected will replace the person who came in 13th place in the proposal that prevailed within the terms of line e); if the approved proposal does not include the maximum number of directors admitted under number 1, the director elected under lines a) to c) above will be added to the number of directors elected within the terms of line e);
 - g) If the proposal that prevailed for the election of the directors within the terms of line e) did not receive a majority of fifty five percent of the votes cast, and votes corresponding to, at least, forty percent of the share capital with voting rights, the shareholders who (i) being eligible to participate in this election, within the terms of the final part of line d) of this number, voted against that proposal or voted in favour of a proposal that did not prevail in this election, and who (ii) by themselves or grouped for the purpose, hold at least twenty five percent of the share capital with voting rights, may present and vote for proposals, electing among them a number corresponding to one third of the directors already elected under line a) and e) above;
 - h) If the total number of directors elected is not divisible by three, the number of directors to be elected within the terms of the final part of the previous line will be rounded up to the nearest whole number;
 - i) The directors elected under line g) will automatically replace those who come in the last places of the list approved within the terms of line e).
3. The decision to dismiss directors who were elected under lines a) to c) and g) of number 2, without just cause, will not take effect if this was voted against by shareholders who represent, respectively, 20% of the share capital, in the case of the director elected under lines a) to c), and, at least, 25% of the share capital, in the case of directors elected under line g).
4. The provisions in lines a) to c) or g) of number 2 apply with the necessary adaptations, to the approval of the decisions to ratify the cooptation of directors in replacement of those elected under lines a) a c) and g) of the number 2, or the election of directors in replacement of those elected under the same lines due to their definitive absence.

Article 15.

Competence of the Board of directors

The board of directors shall have the powers defined in the law and in these Articles of Association, represent the Company in or out of courts, as plaintiff or defendant, having the widest management powers, as well as resolve on any matter relating to the management of the Company, being further entitled to confess, discontinue or compromise in any disputes, as well as in the context of arbitration proceedings.
