

Notice of Force Majeure from Nigeria LNG

Galp informs that it has received from Nigeria LNG Limited, its main natural gas supplier, a force majeure notice based on the extensive flooding being experienced in Nigeria, causing a substantial reduction in the production and supply of liquefied natural gas and natural gas liquids.

At this stage, no information was provided to support an assessment of potential impacts from this event, which may however result in additional sourcing disruptions to Galp.

Galp regrets the humanitarian impact being caused by the flooding, and will continue to monitor this situation attentively, informing on any material development.
